PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

to be held 11:00 a.m., Mountain Daylight Time, May 24, 2006
at the Grand America Hotel, 555 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111

We are furnishing this proxy statement to our stockholders in connection with the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders.

Our Board of Directors is soliciting proxies of our stockholders to vote their shares at the annual meeting. These proxy materials have been prepared by our management for the Board of Directors. This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being sent to our stockholders on or about April 20, 2006.

VOTING

Voting Shares at the Annual Meeting

A stockholder is entitled to vote at the annual meeting if our records show that the stockholder was a stockholder of record as of the close of business on March 31, 2006, the date our board has selected as the record date for this meeting. At that time, a total of 51,775,816 shares of common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of common stock has one vote. Proxy cards accompanying this proxy statement show the number of shares that each stockholder of record is entitled to vote.

Stockholders at the annual meeting will consider the election of directors and the other items listed on the notice of meeting. They may vote in favor of some or all of the nominees for director or may withhold their votes from some or all of the nominees. For all other proposals, they may vote for or against, or they may abstain from voting.

Stockholders may vote in person at the annual meeting, or they may grant a proxy by marking, signing, dating, and returning the proxy cards in the postage paid envelopes provided.

Shares will be voted as the stockholder of record instructs. The persons named as proxies on the proxy card, signed by the stockholder of record, will vote as recommended by our Board of Directors on any matter for which a stockholder has not given instructions. The board's recommendations appear on page 2.

Revoking a Proxy

Stockholders of record may revoke their proxy and change their votes any time before it is voted by:

- giving written notice to our corporate secretary prior to the annual meeting at our address,
- expressly revoking the proxy, by signing and forwarding to us a proxy dated later, or
- by attending the annual meeting and voting their common stock in person.

Quorums and Vote Counting

The annual meeting requires a quorum, which means that a majority of the shares issued and outstanding at the record date are represented at the meeting. If a stockholder grants a proxy or attends the meeting in person, that stockholder's shares will be counted to determine whether a quorum is present, even if the stockholder abstains from voting on some or all matters introduced at the meeting. "Broker nonvotes" (as described below) also count for quorum purposes.

If shares are held through a broker, bank or other nominee, generally the nominee may vote the shares it holds for the stockholder in accordance with the stockholder's instructions. However, if the nominee has not received instructions within ten days of the meeting, the nominee may vote in its discretion only on matters that the New York Stock Exchange determines to be routine. If a nominee cannot vote on a particular matter because it is not routine, there is a "broker nonvote" on that matter.

The seven nominees for director who receive the highest vote totals will be elected as directors. All other matters must be approved by a majority of the votes cast by stockholders who are present or represented and entitled to vote at the annual meeting. Abstentions and broker nonvotes are counted as present and entitled to vote, but they are not counted as votes for or against any proposal.

American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the transfer agent and registrar, will assist in the distribution of proxy materials and tabulation of votes.

Costs of Soliciting Proxies

We are paying the costs of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, certain of our directors, officers and regular employees may solicit the return of proxies by telephone, facsimile, personal interview or otherwise without being paid additional compensation. We will also reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing the beneficial owners of our shares for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners in accordance with the proxy solicitation rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange.

Independent Directors

The listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") require that a majority of the members of a listed company's Board of Directors be independent. The question of independence is to be determined by the board with respect to every director, in accordance with the rules of the NYSE. Based upon the NYSE rules, our board has determined a majority of its current members are "independent," as defined by NYSE rules.

The NYSE rules also require that certain of our committees be comprised entirely of independent directors. Our committees covered by this requirement are the Audit Committee and the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee. Our board has determined that all current members of the Audit Committee and the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee are independent under the NYSE rules.

NYSE Rules

The NYSE rules specify certain relationships that preclude a finding of independence, to which our board has added certain consulting services. If the director does not fall within one of those categories, then the board must determine that no other material relationship exists that would lead to a finding of nonindependence. The NYSE rules allow boards to adopt broad categories of relationships that would not be material.

Determinations of Independence

The board has determined that four of its seven members are independent and meet the standards set by the guidelines. In making this determination, our board first applied its guidelines, then specifically determined, with respect to each director, that he or she did not otherwise have a material relationship with Extra Space Storage Inc.

The following directors have been identified as independent directors of the Company:

Anthony Fanticola
Joseph D. Margolis
Roger B. Porter
K. Fred Skousen

Meetings of Non-Management Directors

The non-management directors hold regularly scheduled meetings in executive session, without the presence of management. The board chooses a presiding director to chair the meetings of the non-management directors. Roger B. Porter serves as the lead independent director. Stockholders wishing to communicate directly with Mr. Porter or the non-management directors may send correspondence addressed in care of:

Corporate Secretary
Extra Space Storage Inc.
2795 E. Cottonwood Parkway
Suite 400
Salt Lake City, UT 84121

Attendance at Meetings of the Board and its Committees

The Board of Directors generally holds at least four regularly scheduled meetings per year and holds additional special meetings as necessary. Each director is expected to attend scheduled and special meetings, unless unusual circumstances make attendance impractical. The Board of Directors may also take action from time to time by written consent. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Board of Directors conducted a total of four meetings. Each director attended 100% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of any committees on which he served during this period.

Current Standing Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has two standing committees, as of the date of this notice and proxy statement. The current members of each committee as of the date of this notice and proxy statement are listed beneath the description of the committee's function.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee has direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention, and oversight of the independent auditors for the Company, and sole authority to establish pre-approval policies and procedures for audit and non-audit engagements with the independent auditors. The Committee also oversees the operation of a comprehensive system of internal controls designed to ensure the integrity of our financial statements and reports and compliance with laws, regulations and corporate policies; oversees the independent auditor's qualifications, performance and independence, and monitors communications with the independent auditor; and monitors the performance of the internal audit function at the Company. A copy of the charter is available at the Company's website www.extraspace.com.

The following directors currently serve as members of the Company's Audit Committee:

K. Fred Skousen (Chair)
Anthony Fanticola
Roger B. Porter

In accordance with the rules of the NYSE, the board has determined that each of the current members of the Audit Committee is independent as defined by the Audit Committee's charter and Sections 303.01(B)(2)(a) and (3) of the NYSE Listing Standards.

The board has determined that Mr. Skousen, in addition to being "independent," is an "audit committee financial expert," as defined in the SEC's Regulation S-K, Item 401(h)(2). Biographical information for Mr. Skousen is found in "Information about the Board of Directors and its Committees—Nominees for Directors."

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices of the Company, as well as the Company's compliance with corporate policies, legal and regulatory requirements, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. During fiscal 2005, the Audit Committee met eleven times, and discussed with the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), controller, internal auditors and independent registered public accounting firm (external auditors), the SEC filings that contained financial information, prior to their public release. The Committee's meetings include, whenever appropriate, executive sessions with the Company's independent registered public accountants and with the Company's internal auditors, in each case without the presence of the Company's management.

In discharging its oversight responsibility, the Audit Committee received from the external auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the external auditors and the Company that might bear on the external auditors' independence and discussed with the external auditors their independence and any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence. The Audit Committee also discussed with management, the internal auditors and the external auditors the quality and adequacy of the Company internal controls and the internal audit function's organization and responsibilities. The Audit Committee reviewed both with the external and internal auditors their audit plans, audit scope and identification of audit risks.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee, among other things:

- monitors preparation of quarterly and annual financial reports by the Company's management;
- supervises the relationship between the Company and its independent registered public accountants, including: having direct responsibility for their appointment, compensation and retention; reviewing the scope of their audit services; approving audit and non-audit services; and confirming the independence of the independent registered public accountants; and
- oversees management's implementation and maintenance of effective systems of internal and disclosure controls, including review of the Company's policies relating to legal and regulatory compliance, ethics and conflicts of interests and review of the Company's internal auditing program.

During fiscal 2005, management advised the Committee that each set of financial statements reviewed had been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and reviewed significant accounting and disclosure issues with the Committee. These reviews included discussion with the independent registered public accountants of matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), including the quality of the Company's accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The Committee also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP matters relating to its independence, including a review of audit and non-audit fees and the written disclosures and letter from Ernst & Young LLP to the Committee pursuant to Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees).

In addition, the Committee reviewed key initiatives and programs aimed at strengthening the effectiveness of the Company's internal and disclosure control structure. As part of this process, the Committee hired a Director of Internal Audit and continued to monitor the scope and adequacy of the Company's internal auditing program, reviewing internal audit department staffing levels and steps taken to implement recommended improvements in internal procedures and controls. The Audit Committee conducted a performance self-evaluation for review with the Board of Directors that included a comparison of the performance of the Audit Committee with the requirements of its Charter.

As set forth in the Audit Committee's Charter, management of the Company is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements. Management is also responsible for maintaining appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles and policies and internal controls and procedures that provide for compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. The internal auditors are responsible for independently assessing such financial statements, principles and policies and internal controls and procedures as well as monitoring management's follow-up to any internal audit reports. The external auditors are responsible for planning and carrying out a proper audit of the Company's annual financial statements, reviews of the Company's quarterly financial statements prior to the filing of each Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, annually auditing management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and other procedures. The members of the Audit Committee are not full-time employees of the Company and are not performing the functions of auditors or accountants. As such, it is not the duty or responsibility of the Audit Committee or its members to conduct "field work" or other types of auditing or accounting reviews or procedures or to set auditor independence standards.

Taking all of these reviews and discussions into account, the undersigned Committee members recommended to the Board that the Board approve the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The executive compensation policies, plans, philosophy, and programs of the Company are under the supervision of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee, which is comprised of the independent directors named below, each of whom has been determined by the Board of Directors to be independent under the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the NYSE listing standards. The Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee has furnished the following report on executive compensation.

Compensation Philosophy

The basic philosophy underlying the Company's executive compensation policies and programs is to align executive and stockholder financial interests as closely as possible, and to base compensation commensurate with performance. Accordingly, the executive compensation program for the Company's CEO and the other officers of the Company has been structured to:

- Reinforce a results-oriented management culture with executive pay that varies according to Company and individual performance against business goals and high ethical standards.
- Provide compensation that attracts, retains, and motivates key executives.
- Emphasize variable performance-based compensation, commensurate with an executive's increasing responsibilities.
- Align the interests of stockholders and the Company's executives by implementing compensation programs that provide for acquiring and retaining significant equity interests in the Company by senior executives.

Based on these objectives, the executive compensation program is structured to provide the Company's executives with base salaries, annual cash incentive awards, long-term incentive awards, and stock ownership opportunities.

We are pleased that the Company has retained the original officers and key senior staff members of Extra Space as well as attracted outstanding additions to the Company's management team.

The Compensation Committee met quarterly during 2005 and completed the key objectives relevant to its charter including:

- Reviewing and approving the compensation of each of the persons named in the Summary Compensation Table, as well as other senior executives. This review included an independent survey conducted by an outside consulting firm. As to executive officers other than the CEO, the Compensation Committee also considers the recommendations made by the CEO.
- Reviewing and approving stock options granted under the ESMI Plan outlined in the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-11 during 2005.
- Reviewing and approving all restricted shares granted in 2005.
- Receiving and approving the compensation for members of the Board. This review also included an independent survey conducted by an outside consulting firm.
- Reviewing the integration of compensation and benefits of employees involved in the acquisition of Storage USA.
- Reviewing the 2006 Annual Incentive Bonus Plan for the payment of cash incentives based on the Company's performance in relation to predetermined objectives and individual executive performance. This review also included an independent survey conducted by an outside consulting firm.

Executive Compensation

The executive compensation plan has been structured to provide short and long term incentives that promote continuing improvements in the Company's financial results and returns to stockholders. The Company's executive compensation is comprised of three elements designed to complement each other.

- Base salaries. The Company's base salaries are designed to be competitive with those of executives of other equity REITs, which compete with the Company, while also taking into account the executive officers' performance.
- Annual Incentive Bonus. Under the 2005 Performance Bonus Plan, the Company provides for the payment of cash incentive bonuses based on the Company's performance in relation to predetermined objectives and individual executive performance.
- Long Term Incentives. The Company's long term incentive program allows for awards of stock options and grants of restricted stock under the Company's 2004 Incentive Plan. Stock options vest 25% each year for four years from the date of grant. Executives only benefit from the grant of stock options if the stock price increases and shareholders also benefit.

During 2005, the Committee also approved bonus awards for selected executives heavily involved in the Company's successful acquisition of Storage USA.

CEO Compensation

Kenneth M. Woolley served as the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer during 2005. Mr. Woolley's employment agreement was initiated in August 2004 and his salary was increased in 2005 as a result of continued positive performance. Mr. Woolley's 2005 annual salary was $275,000. In addition, Mr. Woolley received a bonus award for 2005 of $633,750 largely in recognition of his leadership in the successful acquisition of the Storage USA Self Storage business.

Federal Tax Regulations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, limits the deductibility on the Company's income tax return to compensation of $1 million for certain executive officers unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan that is performance based, nondiscretionary and has been approved by the Company's shareholders. The Committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) since the initial public offering is to make reasonable efforts to ensure that compensation is deductible to the extent permitted, while simultaneously providing the Company's executives with appropriate rewards for their performance.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee:

Roger B. Porter (Chairman)
K. Fred Skousen
Joseph Margolis

- (1) The "grant date present value" is based upon the Black-Scholes option pricing model adapted for use in valuing executive stock options. The principal assumptions incorporated into the valuation model by Extra Space Storage Inc. are as follows: (i) dividend yield of 6.9%; (ii) expected volatility of 21%; (iii) risk-free interest rate of 3.71%; and (iv) expected life of five years. No assumptions were made regarding nontransferability or risk of forfeiture.

Our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not require that stockholders ratify the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm. We are submitting the appointment for ratification because the Board of Directors believes it is a matter of good corporate practice. If our stockholders do not ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain Ernst & Young LLP, but may still retain them.

A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if the representative desires to do so, and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit and Non-Audit Fee Table

The following table presents the aggregated fees for professional audit services rendered for the integrated audits of our annual financial statements for years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, for the reviews of the financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for those fiscal years, for the testing of our internal control over financial reporting pursuant to Section 404(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 for 2005, and fees billed for other services rendered during those periods.

	2005	2004
Audit fees(1)	$ 978,766	$ 231,000
Audit-related fees(2)	178,730	614,600
Tax fees(3)	265,995	335,632
All other fees(4)	—	—
	$ 1,423,491	$ 1,181,232

- 1) Audit fees consist of services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements, audit of our internal controls over financial reporting, review of the consolidated financial statements included in our Form 10-Q, consents issued related to registration statements, and issuance of comfort letters.
- 2) Audit-related fees represent professional fees for accounting consultation, and other attest engagements.
- 3) Tax fees represent professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.
- 4) All other fees are for services other than those in the previous categories such as permitted corporate finance assistance and permitted advisory services.

Preapproval by Audit Committee

Under the Audit Committee's charter, the committee is required to give advance approval of any nonaudit services to be performed by our auditors, provided that such services are not otherwise prohibited by law. There is no de minimus exception to the committee's preapproval procedures. All of the fees described in the table above were preapproved by the committee.

In accordance with its charter and applicable rules and regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company's Audit Committee reviews and pre-approves any engagement of the independent auditor to provide audit, review, or attest services or non-audit services and the fees for any such services. The Audit Committee annually considers and, if appropriate, approves the provision of audit services by the independent auditor. In addition, the Audit Committee periodically considers and, if applicable, approves the provision of any additional audit and non-audit services by our independent auditor that are neither encompassed by the Audit Committee's annual pre-approval nor prohibited by applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee has delegated to the chairman of the Audit Committee, Mr. Skousen, the authority to pre-approve, on a case-by-case basis, any such additional audit and non-audit services to be performed by our independent auditor. Mr. Skousen reports any decision to pre-approve such services to the Audit Committee at its next regular meeting.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote "FOR" ratification of the Audit Committee's selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2006.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR 2007 ANNUAL MEETING

Under SEC rules, proposals from our eligible stockholders for presentation for action at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by us no later than December 21, 2006, in order to be considered for inclusion in the Proxy Statement and Proxy for the 2007 Annual Meeting. Any such proposals, as well as any questions relating thereto, should be directed to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive offices. Proposals we receive after December 21, 2006 will not be included in the Proxy Statement or acted upon at the 2007 Annual Meeting.

Under our Bylaws, and as SEC rules permit, stockholders must follow certain procedures to nominate a person for election as a director at an annual or special meeting, or to introduce an item of business at an annual meeting. A stockholder must notify the Secretary of the Company in writing of the director nominee or the other business. The notice must include the required information and be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not earlier than the 150th day and not later than 5:00 p.m., Mountain time, on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the date of mailing of the notice for the preceding year's annual meeting.

If the date of the Annual Meeting is advanced or delayed by more than 30 days from the first anniversary of the date of the preceding year's annual meeting, notice by the stockholder must be delivered as described above not earlier than the 150th day prior to the date of mailing of the notice for such annual meeting and not later than 5:00 p.m., Mountain time, on the later of the 120th day prior to the date of such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which disclosure of the date of such meeting is first made. The public announcement of a postponement or adjournment of an annual meeting does not change or create a new opportunity for notice as described above.

The stockholder's notice shall set forth the following, as applicable:

- (1) as to each individual whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director, (a) the name, age, business address and residence address of such individual, (b) the class, series and number of any shares of our stock that are beneficially owned by such individual, (c) the date such shares were acquired and the investment intent of such acquisition, and (d) all other information relating to such individual that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest (even if an election contest is not involved), or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A (or any successor provision) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules thereunder (including such individual's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected);

- (2) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a description of such business, the reasons for proposing such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and any Stockholder Associated Person (as defined below) individually or in the aggregate, (including any anticipated benefit to the stockholder and the Stockholder Associated Person therefrom);
- (3) as to the stockholder giving the notice and any Stockholder Associated Person, the class, series and number of all shares of stock of the Corporation which are owned by such stockholder and by such Stockholder Associated Person, if any, and the nominee holder for, and number of, shares owned beneficially but not of record by such stockholder and by any such Stockholder Associated Person;
- (4) as to the stockholder giving the notice and any Stockholder Associated Person covered by clauses (2) or (3) above, the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Company's stock ledger and current name and address, if different, and of such Stockholder Associated Person; and
- (5) to the extent known by the stockholder giving the notice, the name and address of any other stockholder supporting the nominee for election or reelection as a director or the proposal of other business on the date of such stockholder's notice.

"Stockholder Associated Person" of any stockholder means (1) any person controlling, directly or indirectly, or acting in concert with, such stockholder, (2) any beneficial owner of shares of stock of the Corporation owned of record or beneficially by such stockholder and (3) any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such Stockholder Associated Person.

The Board and our management know of no other matters or business to be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting. If, however, any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment(s) thereof, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote such proxy in accordance with their best judgment on any such matters. The persons named in the enclosed proxy may also, if they deem it advisable, vote such proxy to adjourn the Annual Meeting from time to time.

OTHER MATTERS

We do not know of anything else that will come before the Annual Meeting, including any adjournments of it, that has not been discussed in this proxy statement. If other matters properly come before the meeting, the persons named in the proxy card will vote your shares in their discretion.
